- Write your topic or essay question on the top or in the middle of your page and circle it.
 - Write whatever ideas come to mind in circles around the centre.
 - Think about each idea and make more circles around them. Your best and most important ideas will have many circles connected to them.
 - Draw arrows between the circles to show which ideas are connected.
 - If you are uncertain, write an idea as a question. Write as many ideas as possible.
 - Research the topic to add more ideas. Reorganise your circles as needed.
 - Ask yourself what ideas seemopic
