blended learning Design: Projectsed Example

Teacher led 80% In person: 6 20% Online 13 5 (synchroaynchr ndependent Homework

In-person activities:

- Project groups meet to begin tasks
- Presentation of new material
- ™ Teacher: direct instruction for next steps in the project
- readings and apply if appropriate

Online activities:

- Students complete project steps prior to milestone presentations in class, with clear roles
- Synchronous or asynchronous virtual visits to other institutions, galleries, clinics, etc.

blended learning design: Alternating lessons example

blended Learning: Experiential Learning Example

Homework

In-person activities:

Helpful design template?

| Week /Lesson | Topic | Class time |         |                  |  | Homework & assigned readings |
|------------------|-------|------------|---------|------------------|--|------------------------------|
|                  |       | In class   |         | Outside of class |  |                              |
|                  |       | Activity   | Outcome | Activity         |  |                              |
|                  |       |            |         |                  |  |                              |
|                  |       |            |         |                  |  |                              |
|                  |       |            |         |                  |  |                              |
|                  |       |            |         |                  |  |                              |
|                  |       |            |         |                  |  |                              |
|                  |       |            |         |                  |  |                              |